

A cult of sainthood has developed around Calabrias Giacomo Nerone, a mysterious character during the final years of World War II. Monsignor Blaise Meredith, who suffers a terminal illness, is dispatched from the Vatican as a canonical inquisitor known as the Devils Advocate to investigate the presumed holiness of the strange subject. He will find three persons who can help him unlock the case. Each one possesses a vital piece of the puzzle that surrounds the enigmatic life and suspicious death of Nerone. But they find themselves in a conspiracy of silence. Meredith needs not only to resolve the mystery of this case, but also to find meaning to his own life. Blurb in Spanish: En el paisaje desolado y rocoso de Calabria ha crecido la fama de Giacomo Nerone, un misterioso personaje de los últimos años de la Segunda Guerra Mundial al que se venera como a un santo.
