

From Jennifer Weiner comes a story of two sisters with nothing in common but a love for shoes learn they are more alike than they thought possible. Meet Rose Feller, a thirty-year-old high-powered attorney with a secret passion for romance novels. She has an exercise regime shes going to start next week, and she dreams of a man who will slide off her glasses, gaze into her eyes, and tell her shes beautiful. She also dreams of getting her fantastically screwed-up, semi-employed little sister to straighten up and fly right. Meet Roses sister, Maggie. Twenty-eight years old and drop-dead gorgeous. Although her big-screen stardom hasnt progressed past her left hips appearance in a Will Smith video, Maggie dreams of fame and fortune -- and of getting her big sister on a skin-care regimen. These two women, who claim to have nothing in common but a childhood tragedy, DNA, and the same size feet, are about to learn that theyre more alike than theyd ever imagined. Along the way, theyll encounter a diverse cast of characters -- from a stepmother whos into recreational Botox to a disdainful pug with no name. Theyll borrow shoes and clothes and boyfriends, and eventually make peace with their most intimate enemies -- each other.
